Tempo I.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff is in G major, the middle staff in E major, and the bottom staff in C major. The music is divided into three sections by vertical bar lines. The first section starts with a forte dynamic (F) and includes dynamic markings such as p, cresc., and cresc.. The second section begins with a piano dynamic (p) and includes cresc. markings. The third section begins with a piano dynamic (p) and includes pdolce, p, cresc., cresc., and per cresc. markings. The vocal parts are written in German, with lyrics appearing below the staves:

Brüder, wo dein sanf - ter Flügel weilt.

Symphony No. 9 in D Minor, Op. 125

The musical score consists of 18 staves, each representing a different instrument or voice part. The staves are color-coded in a repeating sequence: red, orange, green, blue, purple, and yellow. This sequence repeats across the page. The music is written in a standard staff notation with clefs, time signatures, and various musical markings. The first few staves show primarily eighth-note patterns. In the middle section, there is a prominent use of sixteenth-note patterns, particularly in the lower staves. The score ends with a final section where the instruments play eighth-note patterns.
